

Brother Robert Smith, FSC, PhD, is a native of the USA and has been a De La Salle Christian Brother for 30 years. He holds a PhD in Christian Ethics/Moral Theology from Marquette University, USA, with a specialization in moral methodology as well as sexual and medical ethics. He has lectured, written, and published in the areas of theology, ethics, religious life, and spirituality. Before coming to Bethlehem University in August 2007, he had served in Lasallian higher education institutions in the USA and Africa.

As of 30 October 2010